

schönherr

schoenherr bulgaria

Launched in 2004 and experiencing continuous growth ever since, Schoenherr's Sofia office has established itself as a leading player in Bulgaria's legal market. The office has become popular for multinational corporations looking for efficient, timely and comprehensive legal advice. Schoenherr Bulgaria's workforce of 14 lawyers with outstanding expertise in their respective areas of specialisation and strong international academic backgrounds (including Columbia Law School, Oxford, Boston University, Central European University, Friedrich Wilhelms University Bonn, London School of Economics and Political Science and more) allows the office to build teams to cover the specific requirements of any high-end transaction in a time-sensitive manner. While delivering quality work to international standards is a matter of course for the Sofia office, clients further benefit from our lawyers' understanding of their business needs and their ability to strongly advocate for client interests.
