

Starting in 2004 and experiencing continuous growth ever since, schoenherr Bulgaria has established itself among the leading market players. Our Sofia office has become a popular address for multinational corporations looking for efficient, timely and comprehensive legal advice. A workforce of 20 lawyers with outstanding expertise in their respective areas of specialisation and an international education (Columbia Law School, Oxford, Humboldt-University of Berlin, Ludwig-Maximilians-University in Munich, Central European University and more) can team up to cover the specific requirements of any high-end transaction in a time-sensitive manner. Whereas quality work to international standards is a matter of course, clients further benefit from our understanding of their business needs and value our ability to strongly advocate their interests. Already in the fifth year of existence of Schoenherr Bulgaria, PLC Which Lawyer? ranked it among the top 10 law firms and first among international legal advisors in Bulgaria, with recommendations in corporate/M&A, real estate and competition matters.
