

schoenherr poland

Schoenherr's Warsaw office is a full-service practice that focuses on mergers & acquisitions, capital markets, banking & finance, real estate and energy law. Our team of lawyers advises domestic and international clients on investing in Poland and on cross-border transactions. We have particular experience in mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, private equity, privatisations, public takeovers, initial public offerings, real estate acquisition, sale and development, financing of m&a and real estate projects and renewable energy. Our client list includes national and international corporate groups from several industries, including banks, real estate developers, investment funds, private equity funds, manufacturers, distributors and industrial companies.
