In the footsteps of Empress Elisabeth – a Power Woman of her time.

Keynote speaker

Dr. Hana Dellemann

Commercial Managing Director, Landesholding Burgenland

Topic: Woman & Technology

Hana Dellemann is an experienced executive working at the intersection of mobility, infrastructure and public responsibility. On 1st of October 2026, she will become Commercial Managing Director of Landesholding Burgenland and will simultaneously take on the role of Chair of the Management Board.

Her professional career began at ÖBB and took her via McKinsey & Company to Raaberbahn, where she served as Deputy Managing Director and Sole Managing Director of the Austrian branches. Most recently, she headed Hitachi Rail Austria GmbH as CEO and Country Manager.

Hana Dellemann is known for her clear leadership, financial responsibility and the consistent development of complex organisations. She is particularly committed to encouraging women to take on leadership roles and to play an innovative part in shaping public services. She is convinced that an efficient public infrastructure forms an indispensable foundation for a high quality of life and competitive regional economic areas within a strong Europe.

She holds a Master's degree in Economics and a PhD in Mathematics for Financial Markets

Keynote speaker

Dr. Gyenesei Leila

Olympic dreams, sports diplomacy, sports management

Topic: Woman & Fitness

A woman in a man's world.

A two-time world and three-time European champion in modern pentathlon, a sports diplomat with degrees in law and communications, and a sports executive.

Presenter on Network4 since 2021.

Executive Board member responsible for media at the International Modern Pentathlon Union (2024–).

Chair of the Board of Trustees of the Foundation for the University of Physical Education (2026–).

“I have never seen myself merely as an athlete; I have always wanted to lead a more multifaceted life in a field that is distinctly male-dominated. Whether it be sport, sports media, sports diplomacy or sports management, women are in the minority everywhere. It is not easy to make your mark here, but perhaps there are increasingly more opportunities to do so.”
